6. Public Comment

Ms. Golden advised attendees that staff will send links to transit sites in San Diego, CA, related to a letter received by Jane Leeds.

7. Old Business

a. November 15, 2021 Letter to Caroline County About Public Transportation Services

Ms. Golden advised attendees that staff reviewed the letter sent to Caroline, and comments that were enclosed from Caroline residents. Research was conducted that was provided to the Transportation Equity Coalition, whose goal is to find out what transportation options are currently available, and identify where the gaps are for people with disabilities, seniors, and other vulnerable populations. Ms. Banks explained that Caroline residents have voiced a need for transportation services to get to work, to shop for food and get to doctor's appointments.

Chair Scharpenberg suggested that CTAC can assist as public advocates to facilitate communication and conduct fact finding inquiries of Caroline County staff, as well as ask Fredericksburg Regional Transit to attend a future CTAC meeting regarding their analysis of transit routes in Caroline County.

Ms. Durant suggested contacting the elected officials of Caroline, both local and state legislators, to examine the issues and help with potential solutions.

b. Status update: Stafford County NE Quadrant Connector and western New River Crossing

Chair Scharpenberg advised attendees that he has met with Orange County and Culpeper County staff regarding the western New River Crossing. The Culpeper County contacts were John Egerston, County Administrator, and Sam McLearen, Director of Planning. Culpeper County's primary concern is their US 15 / US 29 corridor, but they are going to start looking at the proposal through their Public Works committees. Orange County's Keri Ragland, Senior Planner, and the entire planning staff were enthusiastic about the proposal. Orange County staff will reach out to the Rappahannock – Rapidan Regional Commission, and advised Chair Scharpenberg of a rezoning application for a 3,400 mixed use development, just north of Rt 20 / Rt 3 in Orange County, through which the western New River Crossing is proposed. While meeting with both localities, Chair Scharpenberg shared Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act (IIJA) funding opportunities.

Regarding the NE Quadrant Connector, Chair Scharpenberg is scheduled to speak to the Stafford County Planning Commission in July.

c. FAMPO Vision Survey

Mx. Touzel provided attendees results of FAMPO's Vision Survey. This survey was sent to 97 people: 6 FAMPO Staff and 91 members of each FAMPO Committee. This survey will help FAMPO create a Future Vision statement. The findings of the survey are as follows:

Key phrases for Why FAMPO Exists include Regional Collaboration, Transportation Planning and Information Dissemination; What Would the Future of FAMPO include? Multimodal, Transit Oriented Development, Sustainable and Equitable, and Fewer Vehicles. Thirty-eight percent of respondents replied that Transportation is the most important solution that FAMPO should be working on. Key replies for Alternatives to Congestion include freight improvements, local and regional mobility (not I-95), and congestion pricing. Key replies to Alternative Funding Options to Gas Taxes include vehicle miles traveled / tax the weight of vehicles, stop funding unnecessary projects / find federal and state funding, and a different sales tax. Ideas were received to integrate land use with transportation infrastructure.

The survey asked participants to rank which, to them, is most important for transportation planning, of which the top choices picked by participants include: 1) multimodal transportation options 2) transportation safety 3) congestion mitigation 4) transportation for all 5) accessibility 6) addressing environmental concerns. Also ranked were replies for the question What would you like to see more of in 50 years? The top four were: 1) transit-oriented development 2) reduced congestion 3) safer roads and sidewalks 4) faster transit.

d. VDOT Report a Problem

Ms. Golden asked if members had outstanding work order requests through VDOT's Report a Problem website, and there were none.

8. Member Discussion / Action

a. FY 23 Election of CTAC Chair and Vice Chair (Action Item)

Chair Scharpenberg, Mr. Ollis and Mr. McLaughlin explained the history of the current CTAC bylaws Article III – Officers.

Motion was made to nominate Mr. Scharpenberg for CTAC Chair.

Motion: Ms. Durant; Second: Mr. Powell

Motion passed with unanimous consent.

Motion was made by Mr. Castellarin to nominate Mr. Rowe for CTAC Vice Chair.

Motion was made by Chair Scharpenberg to nominate Mr. Clay for CTAC Vice Chair.

Mr. Rowe stated his qualifications and Ms. Golden read a portion of Mr. Clay's biographical information. Questions were asked regarding the two Vice Chair candidates' years of service on CTAC and how long they have lived in the Fredericksburg area.

A ballot vote was cast, with Mr. Rowe receiving the majority votes for CTAC Vice Chair.

b. Stafford County Plantation Drive Extension / Comprehensive Plan Concept Roads

Mr. Rowe presented a more refined alignment for a proposed concept road in Stafford County that is an alternative to concept roads currently in their comprehensive plan. The current concept road that extends Enon Road north to Centreport Parkway impacts a cemetery at the corner of Hulls Chapel Road, and the current concept road that extends Berea Church Road north and east to Centreport Parkway impacts existing occupied residences south of Able Lake. The alternative proposal from Mr. Rowe of Plantation Drive Extension avoids occupied residences and cemeteries, and improves mobility between Warrenton Road (US 17) and Centreport Parkway independent of I-95.

Mr. Farley voiced concern for the proposal's impact on sprawl. Mr. Ollis pointed out the impacts of the western New River Crossing and the NE Quadrant Connector provide greater incentives for people to "sprawl," i.e., move further away from the city, more so than Mr. Rowe's Plantation Drive Extension.

Motion was made for Mr. Rowe to present the Plantation Drive Extension to Centreport Parkway at the Stafford County July Planning Commission meeting, as an alternative for consideration to include in their Comprehensive Plan. Mr. Farley made a friendly amendment to the motion which was accepted by the motion maker, to inform attendees of presentations that there was not unanimous support of CTAC.

Motion: Mr. Kwatnoski; Second: Ms. Banks

Motion passed.
